

OUR MISSION

The Trauma Managers Association of California is a non-profit organization whose mission is to ensure optimal care of the injured patient in an organized system from prehospital through rehabilitation. We accomplish this through public-private partnership, leadership, education, advocacy, interdisciplinary collaboration, evidence-based practice, data, performance improvement, and injury prevention.